AT ELY, IT'S ALL ABOUT THE LITTLE THINGS.

It's the little things that matter.

Be it hand written place cards, a recommendation for our favourite florist or our delicious menus tied up with string.

The beauty of a wedding at ely is that the venue is yours to craft, with our guidance.

From Traditional to Urban cool, when choosing ely to celebrate your wedding, the choice is yours.

Be it dinner for close family in the cellar dining room, a seated affair for 200 in the vaults, a supper dish served in warmed bowls followed by dancing in The Atrium Bar, or drinks and speeches in one of our fully licensed bars or on the terrace all topped off with a midnight snack.

We will ensure that you and your guests will have the most memorable day.

A BEAUTIFULLY INTIMATE SETTING IN THE HEART OF GEORGIAN DUBLIN.

Just 2 minutes from St. Stephens Green, the restaurant with private dining area provides a warm & intimate setting for your special occasion.

This iconic wine bar is not only loved for its extensive wine list but for its fresh and seasonal Irish food.

The Georgian dining room is ideal for those who want an understated, elegant celebration and is available for private dining for up to 30 guests.

Our friendly and efficient team are on hand to assist with planning your special day.

With a commitment to food provenance since 1999, and beef and pork produced on the ely family farm in the burren, Co. Clare.

We use only the very best locally sourced seasonal produce, organic where possible and we work closely with you to craft the perfect menu to suit your preferences.

Ely's wine manager Ian Brosnan is delighted to offer advice on wine choices from ely wine bar's impressive range of over 500 wines from around the world, available to suit all palates and budgets.

In summer the georgian dining room is light filled and airy. As a winter wedding setting ely wine bar provides a cosy and welcoming atmosphere with it's beautiful candle lit over mantle and the warmth of the open fire.

THE HISTORIC VAULTS PROVIDE A UNIQUE SETTING FOR A CITY WEDDING IN THE HEART OF DUBLIN'S DOCKLANDS.

Located in the historical chq building in dublin's docklands, the magnificent ely bar&grill once functioned as a wine and whiskey warehouse.

The original 1821 breathtakingly beautiful cellars are still in place and have been transformed to become a unique setting, for wedding celebrations of 12 to 250 guests.

Be it a grand affair, an intimate reception or a traditional dinner, we have a space to suit your style. The vaults can act as a blank canvas to create your own unique wedding celebration.

Our dedicated team are on hand to guide you through your food and wine choices and décor arrangements from start to finish.

We have a carefully crafted selection of wedding packages, to suit individual preferences and requirements.

WHAT SOME OF OUR GUESTS HAVE SAID ABOUT THEIR CELEBRATION WITH US

"What we didn't look for but received from Ely was support, enthusiasm and a dedication to making our day extremely special. From the start they made it clear it was our day and whatever we wanted they would try to accommodate us."

On the day each and every staff member of Ely went out of their way to look after us and our guests with their warmth, light heartedness and eagerness for everyone to enjoy themselves."

"For our wedding we wanted a city centre location with a bit of difference that served good food. Ely delivered this in a spectacular style. Our guests were blown away by the setting and by the wonderful food. The Atrium bar and Vaults looked great on the day. There was a fantastic choice of beer, wine and spirits for our guests to choose from."
